We seek a dynamic, entrepreneurial, and accomplished leader who is a distinguished scholar and innovative administrator with an outstanding national reputation and demonstrated commitment to academic excellence, diversity, and inclusiveness and who will bring vision and inspiring leadership to the School. Key selection criteria will include:

- A leader guided by a sense of integrity
- A responsive communicator
- Inclusion, transparency, accountability, and community building as part of their core leadership principles
- Significant fundraising expertise
- Significant experience in the daily work of running an academic arts institution

The Claire Trevor School of the Arts is one of the nation's most acclaimed and innovative centers dedicated to the study of the visual and performing arts. The Claire Trevor School, named for one of America's distinguished actors, offers degrees in Dance, Drama, Music and Art, as well as minors in Digital Arts and Digital Film Making. Undergraduate and graduate degree courses include extensive studio, workshop and performance experiences; theoretical and historical studies; and arts and technology practices. The School is home to 83 faculty, 734 undergraduate students, and 150 graduate students. The School also works closely with the campus and the community on programs and projects that integrate the arts with other forms of intellectual inquiry and encourages innovative cultural activity in the region.

The Claire Trevor School of the Arts provides excellent facilities to support artistic development and after-class life, including four theatres, a concert hall, three art galleries, the Beall Center for Art + Technology, electronic music studios, cutting edge costume, lighting, and scenic design studios, a stage production shop, digital arts labs, and a video production studio. We are one of the only university campuses in the Orange County area to boast a Performance Capture Studio and a fully equipped Meyer Sound Lab.
