Dear Colleagues:

As we approach the Thanksgiving holiday, I want to express my deep gratitude for all that you do every day to advance the mission of the University of California. The past three years have been challenging for all of us. Please know that we will continue to do everything we can to support you as we move forward. It's through mutual support and collaboration that we can ensure a bright future for the University.

I'm particularly proud of the resilience our faculty, students, and staff have shown time and time again and thankful for your steadfast commitment to our academic goals. I wish you a peaceful and healthy holiday weekend spent with family and loved ones, and I look forward to our continued work together.

Sincerely,

Michael V. Drake, MD
